

Source: Participate in Design

Let's Build Climate Resilience Together

Communities are important assets to tap on in supporting cities' climate change resilience. See how citizen-initiated, community-scale efforts complement public infrastructure to build more climate-resilient neighbourhoods.

🕒 7 min | Read →

CLC WEBINARS

Source: Edwin van Eis

Cars Are Guests on This Street

How can a growing city make room for pedestrians, cyclists, public transport and cars? Deputy Mayor of Amsterdam, Sharon Dijksma, shares how her city is going car-lite to create safe, inclusive and liveable spaces – even amidst the pandemic.

🕒 5 min | Read →

Resilient, Inclusive, Competitive, Healthy Food Systems

Source: Eneas De Troya / Flickr

In a food-insecure world, World Bank Global Director Martien van Nieuwkoop shares how cities can get RICH: "Resilient, Inclusive, Competitive and Healthy" food systems through strong urban governance, logistics and innovative solutions from climate-smart agriculture to insect-based protein.

🕒 5 min | Read →

UPCOMING CLC WEBINAR

Glasgow: Leading the UK's Race to Net-Zero Carbon

SPEAKER

Councillor Susan Aitken

Leader
Glasgow City Council

SPEAKER

Prof Greg Clark CBE

Chairman
Connected Places Catapult

Glasgow aims to become the UK's first carbon-neutral city by 2045, an ambitious goal to boost the country's contribution to global climate action. Councillor Susan Aitken and Prof Greg Clark discuss how the city is de-carbonising its economy and infrastructure, as well as the role of cities and its leaders in the face of climate change.

8 October 2020, Thursday
4.00pm – 4.40pm (GMT+8)

Sign-Up →

PUBLICATION

Source: Adli Wahid, Unsplash

Urban Planning for a Resilient Future

In a time of climate change, demographic shifts and rapid technological development, Executive Director of the CLC Khoo Teng Chye outlines 10 key principles for urban planners to stay ahead and plan for growth in the Singapore Institute of Planners' new publication Towards A Resilient Future.

🕒 5 min | Read →

Urban Solutions

Issue #17: Adapting to a Disrupted World

Environmental Intelligence Combats Climate Change

How do cities sustain the momentum of climate action over the long haul? Invest in understanding the science of climate change, says Benjamin Horton of the Earth Observatory of Singapore.

🕒 5 min | Read →

Can Jakarta Overcome Its Sinking Future?

Jakarta is sinking faster than any other big city due to climate change. But Governor Anies Baswedan is optimistic that collaboration, community action and focusing on transportation will alleviate this impending threat.

🕒 5 min | Read →